Frosh, Key Candidates On Wednesday Ballot

Freshman class officers and finalists for Key King and Queen will be chosen at the second all-campus election Wednesday, Dec. 5, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the recreation hall, stated Sandra Clark, chairman of the Elections Board.

A slight change in the procedure for voting will go into effect at this election, explained Miss Clark. Students who wish to vote need not present their ac cards. Instead, their names will be checked on a list from the Registrar's office. In case a student's name does not appear on the list, he may still vote by showing his ac card.

Six finalists for Key King and six for Queen will be chosen by the entire student body. These finalists will be announced in the Dec. 11 issue of the B-G News. The King and Queen will then be chosen by a movie or television personality who is selected by the Key staff.

Frosh Results

Only freshmen may vote for their class officers. Results of this part of the election will be announced after 8 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 5, said Miss Clark.

Key Candidates

Class Officer Candidates

Freshman officers will be elected from the following: President—Larry Coffman, Larry Bradford, James Steidtmann, John Frankol, Charles Lane, Douglas Talmon, David Strickler, William Dow, Morse Sanderson, Gwen Bay, and William Miller.

Vice-president—Joan Dye, Thomas Lyons, Alan Wainio, Robert Battallia, Raymond Marvin, Dimitrios Economides, Michael Wise, and Beverly Staidle.

Secretary—Judith Lisy, Suzanne Welter, and Nanette Populorum.

Treasurer—Janet Yarolin, Karen Peterson, Richard Gullo, Robert McKay, John Ditchey, and Jayne Trost.

Debate Teams Compete

Two separate groups of University debaters saw action Saturday, Nov. 30, as they attended debate tournaments at Otterbein College and Akron University.

Teresa Barnes, Shirley Merritt, Bonnie Karger, and Dora Ann D'Zurik participated at Otterbein College while Robin Turner, Tom Davis, Judith Finkel, and Jerald Banninga journeyed to Akron University.

Dorm Residents '57-'58 Vacations Extended; Exam Schedules Condensed

The social committee of Rodgers Quadrangle is now operating a campus-wide date bureau. All students of the University may use the service, according to Charles Lane, chairman of the Date Bureau Committee.

On Wednesday and Thursday of each week, girls wishing dates for the week end must fill out a card which they can obtain from their head residents. On these cards, the girls will tell their names, residence, age, and heights. They then return the card to their head resident.

Cards Gathered

The cards are gathered from the head residents by members of the committee on Friday. On Friday and Saturday from 6 to 8 p.m. the bureau will be open to accept applications from men students. The bureau is located in the second floor lounge of Rodgers Quadrangle.

Any man may obtain a date by showing his activity card and giving his name, age, and height. The Date Bureau Committee will then take from their file of ladies' applications the name of a girl of suitable age and height and make the date via phone call for the man.

"Any man or woman who stands up a date will lose his privilege of using the service," said Lane. He further stated that in its first week of operation, the results were satisfactory.

Data Held Confidential

"Names and other data contained on the application cards will be held strictly confidential and all application cards will be destroyed at 8 p.m. Saturday," said Lane.

If a person wishes to use this service and does not want to go out with a particular boy or girl, because of previous experience only and not because of what someone has remarked concerning the prospective date, he or she should tell the committee member at the time of the call and different dates will be arranged, Bill Lounsbury, co-chairman of the bureau, said.

Lounsbury emphasized that the complete co-operation of all house mothers, head residents, assistant head residents, counselors, social chairmen, and students, will be needed for the successful operation of the bureau.

Plans By Committee

The plans for this unique service were worked out by the social committee of Rodgers Quadrangle. Anyone having questions concerning the plan can contact Lane, 341 Rodgers Quadrangle, or Lounsbury, 214 Rodgers.

Mrs. Florence Currier, dean of women, and Dr. William Wright, assistant dean of men, advised the committee concerning its method of operation, according to Lane.

11 Frosh Chosen For Rifle Team

Eleven freshman Army ROTC cadets have been chosen as the 1956-57 Freshman Rifle Team. These men were chosen from the 46 who originally tried out. Capt. Robert Menefee is coach of the team.

Each member of the team is eligible to qualify for a National Rifle Association Expert. He needs 275 points out of a possible 300 to achieve this, Lt. Col. Harry M. Myers said.

Other matches that the team will fire are the Hearst Trophy Match, Second Army Match, National Inter-Collegiate Match, and matches against the Universities of Toledo and Michigan.

The team will also fire some matches combined with the varsity rifle team.

Christmas vacation for the academic year, 1957-58, will be three weeks long, announced Dr. Ralph W. McDonald in a recent press conference.

Next year's Christmas recess is being extended to give the students more opportunity to earn money during this vacation and to have an adequate period for relaxation, Dr. McDonald stated.

English Dept. Holds Teachers Conference

The English department sponsored its fifth annual public school teacher's conference Nov. 30, in the recreation hall. This year's program centered around the teaching of poetry.

Registration and coffee hour was held from 4 to 4:45 p.m. A panel discussion was held at 5 p.m. with James R. Bashore as the moderator. Other members of the panel were Dr. Richard Carpenter, H. Glendon Steele, of the English faculty, and Miss Rose Bloom and Miss Josephine Sparks of Toledo high schools.

The topic discussed was "How I Teach a Poem."

A buffet supper was served in the Shatzel Hall dining room at 7 p.m. Dr. Norman C. Webster, a free-lance speaker, spoke on the subject, "So You Don't Like Poetry."

Falcons Whip Mustangs For Season's First Win

By PAUL LEVY

The very cordial relations between the United States and Canada were not aided to any great degree as the high-flying Falcons thoroughly thrashed Western Ontario 90-53 for their first victory in 15 starts. The last time BG crashed the victory column was way back in December of last year when the Falcons outlasted the University of Arizona 92-75 in the Kentucky Invitational Tournament.

The starting team of Rex Leach, John "Bucky" Slesinger, Chrystal "Boo" Ellis, Dick Abele, and Jim McDonald quickly ran up a 5-0 lead only to see it vanish as the Mustangs retaliated with six straight points to take over the lead for the first and last time, 6-5. Sparked by Slesinger, who hit for 18 points in his finest performance since returning to BG from his service stint, the Falcons pulled out to a nine point lead which they steadily increased, until, at the half, the score gave BG a 16-point edge 39-23.

At the half the Mustangs had hit only five of 25 shots for 20 per cent, while the Falcons' eyes were much better cagging 15 of 42 tosses at the basket for an average of 36 per cent.

During the second half Coach Harold "Andy" Anderson's fast break style of basketball came to the fore as Tom Schwyn, Frank Wade, and Jim McDonald raced down the floor time after time to score on driving lay-ups. At one point the Falcons hooped 16 consecutive points. BG poured it on and at the end of the contest the Mustangs had gone down to one of their worst defeats in recent years.

Much is to be said for big, 6'6" Ray Monnot who tallied 31 points in the Mustangs' losing cause. Monnot, who is a senior, was given the opportunity to go to Melbourne with the Canadian Olympic basketball squad. However, Monnot decided against going because he felt that he would rather remain in school to pursue his medical studies.

Four BG cagers tallied in double figures with no one individual ballplayer being the outstanding star. Slesinger caged 18, Abele 15, Schwyn 12, and Leach 12.

Bookstore Features Unique Yule Gifts

The Bowling Green State University Bookstore has some unique gifts in stock for the Christmas season, announced Paul D. Shepherd, bookstore manager.

The University A Capella Choir's long playing record, "Choral Concert," is among some of the gifts, Mr. Shepherd added. Some of the 12 selections included in the album are "Our Father," by Gretchaninoff, "The Shepherds Story," by Dickinson, "Mary Had a Baby," by Dawson, and "Over The Rainbow," by Arlen.

Two styles of Christmas cards are also being sold. Both are etched and depict a winter scene at the University. One is of the Administration Bldg., the other of the Chapel.

The bookstore also has juvenile shirts, sizes 2, 4, and 6, bibs with squeakers in the middle, and white knit tassel caps with the letters BGSU knitted on the front. Three kinds of stuffed animals, called "Cheer-Ups," are also being sold, reported Mr. Shepherd.

A Cappella To Give Toledo Concert Tonight

The A Cappella Choir will present a concert of sacred and secular Christmas music tonight at 8:15 p.m. at the YMCA in Toledo.

The songs on the program range from "Carol of the Drum," a Czech carol, "Carol of the Bells," a Ukrainian piece, to Jeffrey Marlowe's arrangement of the seasonal favorite, "Jingle Bells."

"Hail Mary," one of many spirituals arranged by William Dawson for the choir, will be another holiday selection, stated Dr. James Paul Kennedy, director of the choral group.

'Pitchpikes' Cop $50 Talent Prize

The Pi Kappa Alpha quartet, consisting of Dick Meredith, lead and switching bass; Ed Janeway, lead and switching bass; Tom Garthausen, baritone; and Glen Vogel, tenor; won a $50 bond on Lloyd Thaxton's "Star of the Week" competitive talent show in Toledo, Nov. 25. They are to reappear in the semi-finals Sunday, Dec. 9, at 6 p.m.

The quartet auditioned for a recording studio in Cleveland and are now waiting results as to whether or not they will cut a record. The group also held a private interview with the manager of "The Crew Cuts."

They were offered an appearance on Tom Haley's "Morning Show" (KYW TV, Cleveland) but were unable to make the trip due to snow and ice in the area. The quartet has been singing together nine weeks.

Historical Drama To Open Dec. 6

"The Patriots," the University Theatre's second major production, will open Thursday, Dec. 6 and will be presented Friday, and Saturday, Dec. 7 and 8, at 8:15 p.m. in the main auditorium.

A clash of personalities and a conflict of ideals between Thomas Jefferson and Alexander Hamilton is the basis for Sidney Kingsley's dramatization of the bitter struggle to win a way of government. It is this human story which Kingsley has documented with facts from history that makes "The Patriots" more than a historical pageant—a vital and exciting drama.

The play received the New York Critic's Award as the Best Play of the Year. The University Theatre's production will be notable for its stylized settings, spectacular lighting, and authentic period costumes, most of which were made in the Theatre Costume Shop, according to F. Lee Miesle, director.

Appearing in the principle roles will be Ben Mehrling as Jefferson, John Shibley as Hamilton, and Delight Thompson as Patsy. Other characters are played by Jerry Banninga, Connie Brogden, Tom Edie, Douglas Eggleston, CONFLICT BETWEEN Hamilton and Jefferson is expressed on the faces of three of the main characters in "Patriots" which opens Thursday, Dec. 6. Dee Thompson will be seen as Patsy, Jefferson's daughter. Ben Mehrling, left as Jefferson and John Shibley, right as Hamilton.

Owen Elder, Leo Foster, Frank Glann, Larry Griswald, David Huffman, and Mike Katz.

Tickets are now on sale at the Gate Theatre box office. The box office is open week days from 10:30 a.m. to noon and 2 to 4 p.m. Tickets will be on sale at the door the nights of the production. Upon presenting their activity cards, students may purchase tickets for five cents.

Symphonic Band To Present Concert

The annual Mid-Winter Concert by the University Symphony Orchestra will be presented Sunday, Dec. 9 at 8:15 p.m. in the main auditorium, under the direction of Seymour L. Benstock.

Fifty-five members of the orchestra will present works by Bach, Mozart, Holst, Plotok, Bartok, and Berlioz. To commemorate the 200th birthday of Mozart, the orchestra will feature two excerpts from "Thamos, King of Egypt."

Of national significance will be the number "Hungarian March" sometimes called the "Rackozzy" by Berlioz which is named after the national hero, Francis Rackozzy.

Ohio Science Group To Meet At University

Bowling Green will be the host college this spring for the annual exhibits of the Ohio Academy of Science.

Dr. Lowry B. Karnes, professor of geography, and Robert E. McKay, financial aid counselor, met with the Academy's executive committee Saturday in Columbus to plan for the event.

A Real Vacation . . .

Christmas vacation, 1957, will be three weeks long. In our opinion, this is perhaps one of the best changes in the academic calendar that the University could have made.

This new schedule is in keeping with the trend being followed at many universities across the nation. Most schools get longer than two weeks recess during these holidays and some colleges on the quarter system grant even more than three weeks for the student who is fortunate to get out of final examinations early.

One of the best features of the new recess plan is that a student who is earning all or part of his way through college is able to get a job in the pre-Christmas season when employment is easy to find and wages are high.

Another advantage is the fact that this extended vacation is being accomplished without increasing the number of days in the academic year. In fact, by tightening the schedule this has been done with a saving of days rather than using more of them.

Christmas recesses in the past have been most unsatisfactory for a large majority of students on this campus. This year's vacation will not start until Dec. 21 which will rule out the possibility of getting a job before Christmas. Last year's was perhaps the least liked of all beginning on a Wednesday only four days prior to the holiday and ending on a Wednesday two weeks later. This gave the student only 12 days of actual recess.

In the past, students wanting to capitalize on the opportunity to earn money during this season used to cut classes before the vacation officially began. Then, too, the University has been enforcing stiff fining rules for pre-holidays cuts which have materially reduced their occurrence.

But now, all of this will be changed and the student will be given an adequate amount of time for relaxation, employment, and enjoyment of the Christmas holidays.

Elvis Bound For Booby Prize; Holiday Season Quirks In Big City

By HERB MOSKOWITZ

An ex-truck driver from Memphis, famous for slugging gas station attendants and Toledo husbands, is currently to be seen at the local cinema. Mr. Presley created quite a commotion among the teenagers, who cheered even when our hero cleared his throat. In the early part of the movie, in what appears to be a stay of execution for the audience, Mr. P. wasn't to be seen but his presence could be felt. Young girls wearing his picture on pins, ribbons and hats kept on yelling they wanted Elvis. When the boy attempted to sing the title song from this epic, "Love Me Tender," shrieks of joy were heard. He was applauded for such heroic lines as "You aint got no right to do this" and "Yeah, what about it?" At the end of the film the poor guy was put out of his agony. Summing up the acting ability of Mr. Presley, when they hand out Oscars in the spring, this guy is in line for a booby prize!

AN INSURANCE SCHOLARSHIP amounting to $300 was presented to Roy Lein, a senior in the College of Business Administration, by Dr. Wilbur J. Abell, while Dr. Benjamin Pierce, dean of the College, looks on.

Insurance Major Is Awarded Scholarship By Griffith Foundation

Roy Lein, an insurance major, competed with 13 other Ohio College students to win a $300 scholarship sponsored by the Charles Griffith Memorial Foundation for Insurance Education.

Out of the 14 students that were interviewed, Lein placed second. The men were rated on personality, intelligence, ability to express themselves, and interest in insurance. They were rated and judged by prominent men from the Foundation.

Altogether there were five scholarships—four $300 and one $150—given to the top five. The $300 scholarships were given to the four students who had to finish their senior year and the $150 scholarship was given to the student who had one semester to finish.

Before applying for the scholarship, the students must have completed six semesters of collegiate work, must have achieved a 2.5 cumulative point average for the three semesters prior to submission of the application, and must express a definite interest in entering some phase of insurance work upon graduation.

Interview Schedule

Dec. 10

East Ohio Co., Cleveland, (Lester Brailey, interviewer). For graduates in sales, accounting, and home economics.

Dec. 12

Excello Corporation, Cleveland, (Robert Williams, interviewer), 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. For February and June graduates in accounting and finance only.

Dec. 14

DuPont Co., (W. F. Gauss, interviewer), 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. For graduates in physical science and chemistry. Also a few juniors for summer employment.

Shopping With Sally

By SALLY CUMMINS

Here it is—20 days until the mistletoe becomes a legal excuse and how many of you fellas have thought about a Christmas gift for that favorite female of yours?

It's that time of year again when the tinsel shimmers, children are wide eyed with traditional wonder, and crowds hustle through the yearly ordeal of Christmas shopping. I hear that for the men this is a very trying time. Not being "born shoppers" and never knowing what the girl friend, pin mate or fiancée really would like for a Christmas gift presents a problem—namely, what to shop for. This column is especially for you fellas to help you select the all important present.

Sweaters are an all-time favorite for the co-eds or for the working girls. They all love the feel of cashmere found in fur blend imported sweaters by Chesire. These sweaters can be purchased at Vi's Dress Shop, 136 W. Wooster, in various colors, short sleeved or long sleeved, slip overs or cardigans. The price ranges from $8.95 to $10.95.

Her parents welcome those letters home with tales of her latest activities, (some of them including you) or maybe you haunt your mailbox waiting for a letter from her. Young's Gift and Art Shop, 156 N. Main St., carries a complete line of Eaton fine letter papers. This is an ideal gift with many colors and decorated stationeries to pick from for her personality perfect paper. The cost varies from $1 to $7.95 a box.

I'm sure you like to see he din a crisp, clean blouse and I can almost guarantee she likes to wear them. The Lady Jane Shop, 133 E. Wooster, is the place to go to find Lady Manhattan and Shapely blouses. Long sleeve, short sleeved, three-quarter length; white, various colors, or prints—take your uick. Choose your price too—$3.98 to $5.95.

To go with her blouses and sweaters, a pencil slim skirt completes her co-ed costume. Kessel's, 112 S. Main St., has Barbara Field skirts in wools and fiocco, Italian fabrics. They also have dress skirts of felts, rayon crepe and velvet. Skirts come in black, brown, and pastels and or prints—take your pick. Choose your price too—$3.98.

Maybe you're tired of finding a lipstick or comb in your jacket pocket after the big date. The Style Center, 101 S. Main St., carries a complete line of faille, velvet or beaded evening bags. Everyday purses of suede, calf or alligator are sold in shoulder or clutch styles. In this department you can spend $5.95 to $12.95.

We know she will be pleased with copper jewelry—the smartest this year to wear with the casual outfits. Dill's Jewelry Store, 129 S. Main St., carries a complete line of necklaces, bracelets, earrings, cufflinks and belts, all in matched sets of tawny lustrous copper by Renoir and Matise. Priced? $2 and up.

Is she a record collector? If she is, she no doubt lists Jackie Gleason with her favorites. His new album, "Merry Christmas," carries the spirit of the season. Bigelow Music Shoppe, 126 E. Wooster, has stocked up for the demand. The album is priced at $2.98 in 45 rpm. and is also available in 33 1/3 rpm.

Sioux Mox, cuddly slippers made of cape skin in light blue, pink, white, red, and navy, will capture her heart. Cook Shoe Store, 145 N. Main St., carries them in sizes 4-10 for $2.95.

If these suggestions don't give you inspiration, take a walk through LaSalle's Department Store, The Lion Store, or J. C. Penney's and look for ideas in their complete stock.

Happy shopping and have a very merry Christmas!

Ohio Reading Group Reviews BG Studies

A review of three research studies in education recently conducted at the University were presented at the meeting of the Ohio Unit of the International Reading Association in Columbus Nov. 30.

Chairman at the sectional meeting on research was Dr. Martha Gesling, professor of education. The consultant was Dr. George L. Slinger, assistant professor of education.

Mrs. Marie Hull, of the Bowling Green public schools, viewed the research she has conducted in completing the requirements for her master's degree.

HAPPY TALK

As we all know, conversation is terribly important on a date. When lulls in the conversation run longer than an hour or two, one's partner is inclined to grow logy—even sullen. What, then, does one do?

If one is wise, one follows the brilliant example of Harlow Thurlow.

Harlow Thurlow prepares. That is his simple secret. Before the date, he goes to the library and reads all 24 volumes of the encyclopedia and transcribes their contents on his cuffs. Thus he makes sure that no matter what his date's interests are, he will have ample material to keep the conversation alive.

Take, for example, Harlow's first date with Priscilla de Gasser, a fine, strapping, blue-eyed broth of a girl, lavishly constructed and rosy as the dawn.

Harlow was, as always, prepared when he called for Priscilla, and, as always, he did not start to converse immediately. First he took her to dinner because, as everyone knows, it is useless to try to make conversation with an unfed coed.

So he took her to a fine steak house where he stoked her with gobbets of Black Angus and mounds of French fries and thickets of escarole and battalions of petits fours. Then, at last, dinner was over and the waiter brought two finger bowls.

"I hope you enjoyed your dinner, my dear," said Harlow, dipping into his finger bowl.

"Oh, it was grandy-dandy!" said Priscilla. "Now let's go someplace for ribs."

"Later, perhaps," said Harlow. "But right now, I thought we might have a conversation."

"Oh, goody, goody, two-shoes!" cried Priscilla. "I been looking everywhere for a boy who can carry on an intelligent conversation."

"Your search is ended, madam," said Harlow and pulled back his sleeves and looked at his cuffs to pick a likely topic to start the conversation.

"I thought we might have a conversation!"

Oh, woe! Oh, lackaday! Those cuffs on which Harlow had painstakingly transcribed such diverse and fascinating information—those cuffs were nothing now but a big, blue blur! For Harlow—poor Harlow!—splashing around in the finger bowl had gotten his cuffs wet and the ink had run and not one word was legible! And Harlow broke out in a night-sweat and fell dumb.

"I must say," said Priscilla after several silent hours, "that you are a very dull fellow. I'm leaving."

With that she flounced away and poor Harlow was too crushed to protest. Sadly he sat and sadly lit a cigarette.

All of a sudden Priscilla came rushing back. "Was that," she asked, "a Philip Morris you just lit?"

"Yes," said Harlow.

"Then you are not a dull fellow!" she cried and sprang into his lap. "You are bright! Anybody is bright to smoke such a perfect doll of a cigarette as today's rich, tasty Philip Morris, which is brimming-full of natural tobacco goodness and fresh unfiltered flavor. . . . Harlow, tiger, wash your cuffs and be my love!"

"Okay," said Harlow, and did, and was.

The makers of Philip Morris Cigarettes, who bring you this column each week, are very happy for Harlow—and for all the rest of you who have discovered the true tobacco goodness of today's Philip Morris!

REX LEACH, the all-star Falcon forward from Vienna, was the first player to break through the paper hoop that marked the cage season's opening. The Falcons routed Western Ontario 90-53.

DU Tallies 69 To Pace IM Cagers

The fraternity basketball season opened Dec. 1, with two leagues going into action. The first day witnessed the disclosing of the defending champions, Phi Delta Theta, as they drubbed Kappa Sigma's B-league team 50-12. Last year's runner-ups, Sigma Chi, made their season debut with a 33-9 win over Kappa Sigma's A-league team.

Delta Upsilon took all honors, however, for scoring. The team itself had a total of 69 points in its victory over Delta Epsilon, and they also boasted the highest individual scorer of the day, Jim Lessig, with 20 points. Other scores included:

Sigma Nu 27, Delta Tau Delta 24; Alpha Kappa Omega 23, Pi Kappa Alpha 22; Alpha Tau Omega 35, Phi Kappa 17; Phi Kappa Tau won by a forfeit over Sigma Phi Epsilon; Theta Chi 59, Z.B.T. 15; Pi Kappa Alpha B-team 26, Theta Chi B-team 16; Sigma Nu B-team 25, Alpha Tau Omega 9.

Frosh Humble Toledo Quintet

Utilizing every opportunity, the Bowling Green freshmen fast broke their way to 77-54 win over a makeshift aggregation from Toledo who call themselves the Gus County All-Stars last Saturday evening, Dec. 1.

Guard Jim Darrow hung up eight of the first 14 BG points, then went on to score the leading total of 26. Teammate Dick Kuzma scored nine baskets to become runner-up with 18 points.

All smiles afterwards, Coach Jim Knierim was "satisfied" with his boys' performance. He conceded the so-called All-Stars tired late in the game, but this did not detract from the frosh victory.

Both teams felt each other out early, but midway through the first half Bowling Green broke a 14-14 tie and held the lead until the final buzzer.

Kent tackle, Luke Owens, was the third draft choice of the Baltimore Colts.

Swim Units Defend Titles At Miami

The Splashers and Swan Club, women's swim teams, will defend their first place team and duet positions at the annual inter-collegiate swim meet at Miami University, Dec. 8.

The teams are defending champions of last seasons intercollegiate meet.

Nov. 30, the two clubs swam against the Michigan State team. Nell Toriskie did a solo titled "Goldfish," Jeanne Carlson and Mary Jane Poole a duet titled "Emotions," and Miss Toriskie, Adella Grove, Linda Tieman, Jeanne Carlson, and Mickey McCoy did the "Elephant Tango."

Top Ohio Coach

the Prez Sez:

By LES WAGNER

In his second year of coaching, Doyt Perry was named as the Ohio college coach of the year. In a poll of coaches conducted by the Columbus Dispatch the Falcon coach ran away with the coveted prize.

Perry had an undefeated team and took the MAC crown. Thirteen of the 30 ballots cast named him first. Dick Mast of Bluffton, was second and Miami's John Pont was third.

I feel that the football players alone know the terrific job that Perry did and he received an honor that he richly deserves.

Our hats are off to a Delta Tau Delta team that rolled over the independent and fraternity best to become intramural kings.

BETWEEN HALVES

Rumor has it around campus that a top jazz recording star will perform on campus late in January.

Northwestern's Bob M Kiever reminded me of Vic DeOrio.

Northwestern's Ara Parseghian is being touted as possibly the top young football coach in the country.

Chet Baker is my favorite jazz artist.

Miami whipped Kent to jump out in front in the MAC cage race.

All-MAC Elevens

Bowling Green placed five men on each of the first two MAC teams.

Tackle Ken Russell, guard Tim Murnen, center Hal Peek, halfback Vic DeOrio, and fullback Jack Giroux were the first stringers.

On the team picked at the MAC meeting, Murnen, DeOrio, and Miami's quarterback Tom Dimitroff were unanimous choices. Giroux had to settle for a tie with Dean Porter at Miami.

Dimitroff, Kent tackle Luke Owens, Toledo, guard Clayton Umbles, and Miami halfback were named to both the MAC and INS teams.

BG's Don Nehlen was a second team choice by both.

BG Out To Chalk Up Third Victory

A perennial court powerhouse in the form of the Dukes from Duquesne University invade the local hardwood Thursday to match hoops with a fast-moving Falcon five. Tap-off time is set for 8 p.m. in the Men's Gym.

This game will mark the fifth appearance of the Dukes at Bowling Green. Duquesne holds a series edge over the Falcons, winning eight of nine contests played. BG's lone triumph in the series came during the 1947-48 campaign when they posted a 62-48 win.

In their first game the Dukes whipped Florida State 70-55.

In his ninth season at the Pennsylvania university, Coach Donald "Dudey" Moore is faced with a tough rebuilding job. He must find replacements for All-American Si Green and playmaker Mickey Winograd who have graduated. Together they accounted for 53 per cent of Duquesne's scoring last year and Green alone picked off approximately one-third of the team's rebounds.

Nine lettermen, led by Dave Ricketts, 6'-2" senior and team captain, form the nucleus of this year's squad. Junior Jack Sauer, 6'-3", will flank Ricketts in the forecourt. Operating out of a guard position will be juniors George Henry, 6'-2", and Fritz Binder, 6'-1", with Lou Sevorine, a 5'-11" senior in ready reserve.

Of chief concern to Moore will be getting that second shot for the team off the backboard. His team averages 6'-2" in height and the starting quintet will probably be a shade over that figure. A good rebounder is lacking but Duquesne still rates as a tough defensive outfit.

Last year the Dukes sported a 17-10 overall record and bowed to Louisville in the semi-final round of the National Invitational Tournament. The Falcons last winter were humbled, 76-54, by Duquesne in their one encounter. Green scored 44 points in this fray to almost singlehandedly whip the locals.

JUST A KID at heart! Carol Graber, Alpha Phi, proves that she hasn't lost her childhood knack for blowing bubbles at the all-campus pledge party sponsored by Gamma Phi Beta Friday night in the recreation hall. Pledges from the fraternity and sorority pledge classes came dressed as children for the "Kiddies Party."

Sororities Celebrate Foundings; ADPi's Sponsor Faculty Dessert

The annual Delta Gamma Sorority Birthday Dinner was held at the Women's Club Wednesday, Nov. 28, at 5:30 p.m. The dinner was in celebration of the founding of the Delta Gamma chapter at Bowling Green.

Dr. Florence Williamson, professor of education, was presented a watercolor painting by the chapter in token of its appreciation for her help. Marilyn Schaser, DG active, painted the watercolor.

Alpha Gamma Delta celebrated its eleventh year at BG with a birthday dinner Wednesday, Nov. 14, for the actives and alumnae.

Alpha Delta Pi will hold its annual faculty dessert tonight from 7 to 9 p.m. Approximately 100 professors are invited.

The entertainment will consist of a skit depicting a day in the life of the average Bowling Green student, contrasting the difference in attitude between freshmen and upperclassmen.

Phi Kappa Tau held its annual "Phi Kappa Tau Dream Girl Dance" Saturday, Nov. 17, in the Fine Arts Auditorium from 9 to 12 p.m. Miss Gail Francis, Chi Omega, was crowned "Dream Girl" for 1957.

Alpha Xi Delta will serenade the campus tonight from 7 to 9 p.m. Wanda Aman was awarded the chapter scholarship bracelet recently for improvement of grades. The Alpha Xi pledges gave an after-hours party for the actives Nov. 30.

Mitzi Kohring reigned as the Delta Queen of 1956 at the Delta Tau Delta annual Christmas closed formal at the Elks Club in Findlay Saturday, Dec. 1. A full-course turkey dinner for the members and their dates preceded the dance, according to George Howick, president of the group.

During the intermission, Miss Kohring was presented while the members of the fraternity sang, "My Delta Queen" and "You're as Pretty as a Picture." She was crowned by the Delt head resident, Mrs. Cora Peters.

Dave Dearing and Robert Rumbaugh served as co-chairmen. Last week the Chi Omega's celebrated Itty Bitty Buddy Week. All the girls had a secret Itty Bitty Buddy and gave her a gift each day. At the end of the week the Itty Bitty Buddies were revealed.

Pres. and Mrs. Ralph W. McDonald were the dinner guests of the Alpha Phi sorority Wednesday, Nov. 28. The Alpha Phi's had an Constitutional changes and the pledging program are to be discussed at the meeting.

The new Rho Sigma Mu pledges are Joe Gall, George Dunster, Mahlon Rouch, and William Barr.

Pemvention Attracts Hundreds; Features Demonstrations, Talks

"Pemvention," a mock convention for University and area persons interested in physical education, was held Thursday, Nov. 29, in the Women's Gym. The theme was "Where There's a Will, There's Headway," and was sponsored by the Physical Education Majors, Mrs. Amy Torgerson, faculty adviser.

Speakers on "Weighing our International Headway" were Samih Awad, Egypt; Delbert Saito, Hawaii; Claudin Royards, Netherlands; and June Fritsch, who has traveled through Europe. Presiding were Luann Semler and Linda Tieman.

A demonstration showing how the first lesson in modern dance would be taught so that the students would enjoy and wish to participate in it was given.

A discussion, "Physical Education As I See It," was headed by Celia Giganti. Members of the panel were from Cleveland, Lakewood, and Bowling Green. The panel of interrogators for this discussion was composed of persons from Perrysburg and Bowling Green. The interrogators and the audience asked questions of the panel on all phases of physical education.

A discussion of the problems and questions dealing with employment in the teaching profession was given, and a talk was presented on techniques in meeting the challenge of large classes.

The scope of modern physical therapy and people constantly faced with the rehabilitation problems of others was discussed. A panel spoke on adult recreational problems.

Dr. Harry Scott, professor of health and physical education, Columbia University, spoke on "Where There's a Will, There's Headway," presided by Elizabeth Arink.

More than 500 persons came to hear the speakers and to visit the 25 booths of commercial exhibitors.

PSI CHI TO MEET

Psi Chi, national honorary society in psychology, will hold a meeting Thursday night at 7:30 in 18 Psychology Bldg., according to William Barnard, president.
